VOICES FOR HUMANITY JOINS FRED SHAW IN FIGHT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

Los Angeles, CA – October 18, 2018 – Scientology Network’s VOICES FOR HUMANITY, the weekly series presenting heroic change-makers from a variety of faiths, cultures and nations, working to uplift their communities, announces a new episode featuring the work of human rights activist, Fred Shaw, premiering October 24, 2018.

VOICES FOR HUMANITY airs Wednesdays at 8 p.m. ET/PT on Scientology Network.

Over 190 billion dollars are spent every year in the U.S. on mental health. Seventeen million American children have been determined to be mentally ill. Electroconvulsive shock “therapy” (ECT) is being administered to infants and children under the age of five. One in six African Americans are taking psychiatric medication. Human rights watchdog Reverend Fred Shaw challenges mental health diagnoses made with no scientific basis, extreme psychiatric treatment and over-drugging by standing up to and fighting the system.

ABOUT FRED SHAW

Born into a family of civic-minded freedom fighters in South Los Angeles, Fred Shaw often heard it said, “If you don’t stand up, who will?” A former deputy sheriff, Fred has a passion for protecting civil and human rights by elevating people, especially those in African-American communities.

The Scientology Network debuted on March 12, 2018. Since launching, the Scientology Network has been viewed in 237 countries and territories worldwide in 17 languages. Satisfying the curiosity of people about Scientology, the network takes viewers across six continents, spotlighting the everyday lives of Scientologists; showing the Church as a global organization; and presenting its social betterment programs that have touched the lives of millions worldwide. The network also showcases documentaries by Independent filmmakers who represent a cross section of cultures and faiths, but share a common purpose of uplifting communities.

Broadcast from Scientology Media Productions, the Church's global media center in Los Angeles, the Scientology Network can be streamed at scientology.tv and is available through satellite television, mobile apps and via the Roku, Amazon Fire and Apple TV platforms.
